STOCKBRIDGE MAN FOOTBALL RULES LEADS GOLFERS TO BE DISCUSSED

Hot Springs, Ark.. February 5.—
Philip S. Blagden, of New York City, representing the Stockbridge, Mass, Country Club, won the finals in the first flight in the Fitch tournament on the links of the Hot Springs Golf Club to-day.

Blagden's opponent was A. C. Johnson, of the "Minikhada" Club, of Minneapolis, Minn., winner of the midwinter tournament. The match was played on a seggy course. Blagden went out in 42 and came back in 44. Johnson was 1 up on Blagden in the first eighteen holes, but the Eastern player had matters all his own way on the last eighteen, winning the match 7 up and 6 to play.

Criss Signs Contract.

New York Webruary 5.—The signed contract of "Dode" Criss was received to-day by the New York American League Club. Criss was drafted from the Houston club, of the Texas League, last September. He lives in Sherman Mo. where he signed his points, depending upon the distance from which it is kicked. Other more technical changes, such as moving the goal posts back, altering the rule which keeps a ball in play after striking the post from a kick-off, and requires a linesman to have both hands, both feet or one hand and one foot on the line of scrimmage, also will be supported by a number of the Western colleges. A proposal will be made to reduce the value of a field goal, or grade its value was league from the lines of a field goal, or grade its value of a f

In addition to this trip, Manager, Gas-ton has arranged a minor trip, which will extend as far south as Spartanburg. On the latter trip, Trinity will meet a number of State colleges and Wofford, of South Carolina.

The total number of games arranged for this season is thirty. Fourteen of this number will be played away from the home ground. Two games are scheduled with the Durham "Bulls," and one with the Jersey City team of the International League, which goes through spring training in Durham. All the other games are strictly inter-

SNAPPY CONTEST

In one of the fastest and preitiest games seen on the Howitzers' court this season, the strong C. C. A. team, contenders for first place in the Class B League, defeated the McGill Catholic Union five by the score of 28 to 12. The game was full of thrills all the way through and furnished excitement a-pienty for the 500 spectators who packed the galleries. The C. C. A. team is now tied for first place with the McGill team, and the play-off will be sure to attract as great an attendance as was seen at the armory last night.

and the play-off will be sure to attract as great an attendance as was seen at the armory last night.

The McGill team was a little off in its work, owing to the fact that the star man, Nickel, had his head cut when he fell against one of the iron radiators after about eight minutes of play. The C. C. A. team heid the McGill boys scoreless after the accident.

The goal shooting of Woodward and Bell featured for the C. C. A., as did also the good guarding of Patterson and Hay. Murdoch at centre contributed his share of the work also. The officiating of Mr. Hughes was of first-class order, being right on the job in every scrimmage. The line-up:

McGill-Gerring, forward: Nickol (captain), forward; Suillvan, centre; Poh, guard; Finegan, guard.

C. C. A.—Woodward, forward: Bell (captain), forward; Murdoch, centre; Patterson, guard; Hay, guard.
